- Write your topic or essay question on the top or in the middle of your page and circle it.
  - Write whatever ideas come to mind in circles around the centre.
  - Think about each idea and make more circles around them. Your best and most important ideas will have many circles connected to them.
  - Draw arrows between the circles to show which ideas are connected.
  - If you are uncertain, write an idea as a question. Write as many ideas as possible.
  - Research the topic to add more ideas. Reorganise your circles as needed.
  - Ask yourself what ideas seemopic
