The Eye

*You should know, I have defeated vjg G{g , before;
I locked it away behind a tightly sealed door
Made my allies promise to never open it again
And then fled like a deserter runs from the war*

*Even my own eye does not dare look up and meet
The glare from the shadow I see across the street
Beyond the trenchesot*

This time is different

I angered

jg G g

By being belligerent

Why wasn't I more cautious,

Why wasn't I more vigilant?

And so vj
