

In this written assignment of between 750 and 1000 words, you will have to role-play the opposing views of Ishmael and Zira in an imaginary conversation about helping humans to thrive on the Planet of the Apes.

You will have to take the role of Zira (as depicted in the eponymous movie). Imagine that Zira is the student of Ishmael.

The first part of the dialogue should elaborate on Zira's ethical dilemma to help (or not) Colonel Taylor escape from his captors, thus allowing (or not) humans to thrive again on this planet. Based on the movie that we watched in class, is Zira
